CHAIRMAN Message

Education is not merely the process of gaining knowledge, it is the journey of shaping character, building confidence and creating responsible citizens for the future. At SCPM Group of Institutions, we strongly believe that true education must blend academic excellence with moral values, practical skills and social responsibility.

Our vision is to create institutions that empower students to become competent professionals and compassionate human beings. Through SCPM Group of Institutions, we are dedicated to developing healthcare professionals who are skilled, ethical, competent and committed to serving humanity.

We constantly focus on quality education through experienced faculty, modern infrastructure, learning resources, practical and clinical exposure, discipline, dedication, value-based learning and holistic development of every student.

As we welcome the academic year 2026–27, I invite all ambitious students to become a part of the SCPM family. Here, you will not only gain knowledge but also learn discipline, teamwork, compassion and leadership.

Your dreams, when supported by the right guidance and environment, can shape a bright future not only for you, but for society as a whole.

“Welcome to SCPM where education meets excellence and values.”

DR. O. N. PANDEY

Chairman
SCPM Group, Gonda

Message PRESIDENT

With the establishment of SCPM Sewa Sansthan in 2007, a strong foundation was laid for building an institution dedicated to medical education, services and social responsibilities.

Under the visionary guidance of founder & chairman of SCPM Group, our group has grown steadily with the spirit of commitment, discipline & excellence. Over the past Nineteen years, this journey has been marked by continuous progress, innovation in education and nurturing thousands of young minds who are serving our society with skill, honesty & integrity.

Education is the most powerful tool to shape the future of individuals and society. At SCPM Group of Institutions, we are deeply committed to create an environment where students grow not only academically but also morally, emotionally and socially.

As we step into the academic year 2026–27, I warmly welcome all new students and wish them a journey filled with learning, growth and achievement.

May your time at SCPM become a strong foundation for a bright and meaningful future.

MRS. ALKA PANDEY

MANAGING DIRECTOR Message

At SCPM Group of Institutions, we believe in blending tradition with modern science, discipline with innovation and learning with service. Our institutions provide a supportive environment where students grow academically, professionally and personally.

By building on our existing strengths, encouraging fresh ideas and working together as one team, we can move steadily towards achieving the true vision of our institutions. I strongly believe that through innovation and the effective use of our shared talents, we can elevate our institution to new heights of success and recognition.

My vision includes a strong organizational framework, a vibrant teaching learning culture and a thriving research ecosystem.

I warmly invite all aspiring students to join the SCPM family in the coming academic year and take the first step toward a bright and successful future.

“Let us walk together on a journey of growth, achievement, and positive impact.”
